RE: Syniverse Networks, Inc. rolls into Syniverse Technologies, Inc.

Dear Mr. Terreni:

Based on correspondence with James McDaniel, South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff, we are informing you that Syniverse Networks, Inc. has been rolled into Syniverse Technologies, Inc. (hereinafter "Syniverse"). No other aspect of our business has changed. Syniverse was granted authority to resell private line services within the State of South Carolina by Commission Order No. 2004-39, issued January 30, 2004. Please let me know if you require any additional information.

Sincerely,

David J. Robinson

Mr. Robinson:

After review of your filing, Line 113 (c) should be the sum of both intrastate and interstate revenues. Your company reported intrastate revenues of $13,172.92 - Line 113 (a). Therefore Line 113 (c) should reflect the same amount - $13, 172.92, because your company reported no interstate revenues. Would you please confirm that the total revenues for Syniverse's SC operations was $13,172.92. An e-mail response is sufficient.

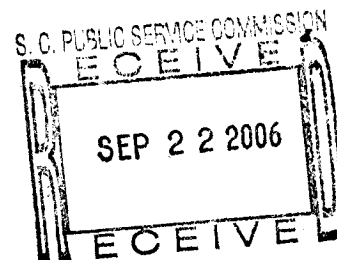

In addition, we recognized that the company had changed it name from Syniverse Networks, Inc. to Syniverse Technologies, Inc. In order to maintain, an accurate information on jurisdictional telephone utilities, we recommend that you notify the Public Service Commission of South Carolina of this change. This notification should be sent to:

Mr. Charles L.A. Terreni
Chief Clerk/Administrator
Public Service Commission of South Carolina
P.O. Drawer 11649

Your attention to these matters will be appreciated.

Sincerely,
